

KUBRI | EuroArab Career and Education Fair

24 -25 May 2013 | Technische Universität München (TUM), Germany

KUBRI

The EuroArab Career and Education Fair KUBRI takes place at the Technische Universität München - Campus Garching, Germany on 24 - 25 May 2013. KUBRI focuses on the sectors of management, engineering and Arab studies.

Students, graduates and young professionals visit KUBRI to meet the representatives of renown companies and educational organisations from Europe and the Arab World and to inform themselves about working and studying opportunities in the countries of the MENA region.

Besides interesting contacts and attractive career and education opportunities KUBRI provides its visitors with an appealing additional programme, where supplementary activities such as workshops, company presentations, related to EuroArab business, education and culture receive a wider stage.
